A P.S. to the message below: after I sent it, I got a call from Dr. Love. He confirmed that a student taking 1 unit of KIN 54A (vs. two 1/2-units of 58A) would satisfy the KIN requirement in the COSER Degree. Re-sending this so you'll have it all in one message.

Subject: FW: KIN Requirement for COSER

Couple of things about this:

1. We now do have 100% confirmation from Dr. Love that 1 unit KIN 54A will satisfy the two .5 units of KIN 58A (the old PE 9) required in the COSER Substance Abuse Degree/Certificate.
2. A reminder to encourage students to take the KIN course P/NP since they need far fewer hours to earn their unit(s) than if they take it for a grade (see attached syllabus for hour count).
