The College of Alameda's General Education transfer pattern is designed to meet the CSU Transfer requirements. Courses may be applied to one area only. As a Transfer student you should: 1) Meet with a COA counselor to design a Student ED Plan that will assist you in identifying the transfer major and general education requirements successfully; 2) upon completion of all transfer courses, request the CSU GE Certification with the final transcripts; 3) With counselor assistance, determine whether you are eligible for an AA degree. Note: There is an additional 9 semester/12 quarter upper division GE units required to graduate from the transfer CSU institution. Community College students are limited to a maximum of 70 semester/105 quarter transferable units to the CSU system.
