What's New?

Databases

Credo Reference contains hundreds of in-depth subject encyclopedias and handbooks covering every major subject from Accounting to Art History and Shakespeare to Einstein.

Project MUSE contains articles and book chapters in the humanities and social sciences. Their collections cover subjects such as music, religion, and women's studies.

New Books

We are always adding new books to our collection! You can find them on the "New Book" shelves located to the right of the entrance. Be sure to check them out every time you come to the Library.

You're sure to find something interesting!

Computers

All of our computers have been updated with Microsoft Office 2013! Also, you are now able to use our computers for 2 sessions of 2 hours each.

Book Sale

We are holding a book sale this semester. We will be selling old textbooks, manuals, and more on numerous subjects including the sciences, history, and social studies.

LIS 085

Want to learn how to be a better researcher? Want to know how to use all the resources we have to offer? Sign up for LIS 085, a 2-unit, 8-week online course starting on Wednesday, February 11th. For more information, email the instructor at LRoberts@peralta.edu
