

DISTRICT FLEX DAY

January 14, 2015

9:00am – 3:30pm

Laney Theater, Laney College

Keynote Speaker: Kevin Powell

“Equality in America: Barack Obama, Ronald Reagan, and The Ghost of Dr. King”

An interactive discussion on the educational, life opportunities and possibilities for all students

Kevin Powell is one of the most acclaimed political, cultural, literary and hip-hop voices in America today. He is the author of 11 books; including his upcoming book a memoir of his very difficult childhood and youth. As an activist, Powell is the president and co-founder of BK Nation, a new national organization — progressive and multicultural, and focused on matters like education, civic engagement and leadership training, health and wellness, social media, arts and culture, and job and small business creation.

SPECIAL FLEX DAY Event

Multiple Measures: Improving Placement for Incoming Students

PLEASE JOIN US: Come and hear John Hetts, the former Director of Institutional Research at Long Beach City College, speak about their experience using student Grade Point Averages (GPA's) to improve placement into college-level courses. The Long Beach Promise Pathway initiative—now in its fifth year—is a promising practice. As the Peralta Colleges help lead the East Bay in building K-14 career pathways, the Long Beach experience can help inform our next steps.
