

Environmental Studies at Merritt College

Fall 2017, Aug. 21 – Dec. 15

Environmental Careers

Career development strategies and exploration of what is available in emerging environmental fields that are some of the fastest-growing sectors of the economy.

ENVMT 1 Mondays 6:30-9:30pm, 8/21/17 - 9/25/2017

Enrollment code 44451, 1 unit Instructor: Grey Kolevzon

Ecology Culture, and Stewardship of Calif Landscapes

Explore our cultural relationships to nature and new paradigms of stewardship; field trips to learn about the major ecological heritages in the Bay Area.

ENVMT 42 Saturdays, 10:00 am – 1:00 pm

Enrollment Code 44452, 3 Units, Room M-H 101

Instructor: Clay Anderson, naturalartt@gmail.com

Introduction to Creek and Watershed Restoration

Investigate possibilities and challenges in restoration of urban creeks. Field visits to assess water quality and riparian habitat; introduction to principles of hydrology.

ENVMT 44 Sundays, 10:00 am – 1:00 pm

Enrollment Code 44453, 3 Units, Room M-H 101

Instructor: Martha Berthelsen, mberthelsen@peralta.edu

Additional Courses

Environmental Racism and Justice

ENVMT 12/ AFR AM 38 ON-LINE 9/11/17-12/15/17 3 units, Course code: 44455

Permaculture Design I LANHT 28A Fridays 9:00 - 1:50pm 3 Units, Course Code 43454

Oakland Food Culture ENVMT 5, 3 units, Course code 44545 High School Class

Register on line at www.merritt.edu or call (510) 466-7368

Merritt College, 12500 Campus Drive, Oakland, CA 94619

For more information about the Environmental Management and Technology program and certificates available, visit www.ecomeritt.org/

