New Databases

The Career Transitions database will help you search for jobs/internships, create a resume, write a cover letter, and more!

The Writer's Reference Center will help you write better essays and includes tools like rhyming dictionaries and literary term definitions.

Library Survey

Students, please take a moment to come to the Library or go to the library website and take our survey. Your responses will help us serve you better!

As You Wrap-Up Fall 2013...

Congratulations! You're almost to the end of Fall 2013! As you finish your classes, remember to take advantage of all the great resources the Library has to offer:

- Quiet study space
- Textbooks
- Computers and printers
- Database access to thousands of scholarly journals
- Tools to help you format bibliographies, write essays, find jobs, and more!
- E-books
- Reference librarians to help you find resources

ID Cards

Your student ID card is your library card. Get your ID card and Spring 2014 sticker in R-124. ID cards are free for the first 2 weeks of Spring 2014!

Online Access

You can access all of our databases and e-books from home using your name and student ID number. Perfect for studying on the weekends or during the holiday break!

Holiday Closures

We will be closed from

Monday, December 16th through Monday, January 20th

for the winter holidays.
