Welcome Back!

Spring 2014 semester has begun and the Library is once again open! Don't forget to visit us and see all the resources we have to make your semester successful including: textbooks, computers, printers, quiet study space, and librarians to help you with research.

Food Matters at Merritt

Is your class participating in Food Matters this semester? Check out some of the e-books we have that explore this topic!

Food Fray: Inside the Controversy Over Genetically Modified Food covers the history and debate over the creation and consumption of genetically modified foods.

What the Slaves Ate: Recollections of African American Foods and Foodways From the Slave Narratives provides first-hand accounts of what slaves ate and how they subsisted by drawing on African and Caribbean culinary traditions.

Diet and Nutrition Sourcebook provides up-to-date guidance on nutrition and health and details how children, seniors, vegetarians, athletes, and others can benefit from good nutrition.

We will be closed on February 14th and February 17th for Presidents' Day.

Copy Machines

We have 2 copy machines in the library for student use. Copies are 10 cents per page. You can save money by copying 2 pages onto larger size paper but the font will be smaller. Ask a librarian how!

ID Cards

Your student ID card is your library card and is required for borrowing reserve textbooks or periodicals. Get your ID card and Spring 2014 sticker in R-124 today!

Faculty Book Requests

In anticipation of our move into the newly-renovated L Building, we are looking for book suggestions from faculty to augment our print collection. If you have any titles that you feel the Library should own to support your curriculum, please contact Librarian Eva Ng-Chin at engchin@peralta.edu or (510) 436-2462
