

Arthur B. Scott, is a retired university professor and entrepreneur, works with local high schools to provide college career opportunities to seniors. He graduated from East High School, spent his military career in the Navy as a Public Affairs Officer, and earned a Bachelor's degree from Cal State University, Hayward, and a Master's degree in Public Policy from UC Berkeley. Scott has served 12 years on the Board of Directors of the Alameda County Fair and was a 12-year member of the Cal State Bar Discipline Panel. He has lived with his family in Oakland since 1965 and has two adult children and two adult grandchildren.