

December 2017

Coach Armond Gray Bio and Comments

Coach Armond Gray enters his 20th season of coaching Basketball and his 5th with the Merritt College Lady T- Birds. In his five seasons with Merritt College Coach Gray has helped the Lady T-Birds earn a Bay Valley Conference Championship. Last year was Coach Gray's first season as head coach. The Lady T-Birds finished with a record of 16-11 and 3rd place in the Bay Valley Conference. Prior to coaching at Merritt College Coach Gray coached at his Alma Mater, City College of San Francisco. While at CCSF he helped the Men's Basketball program earn a Coast Conference Championship in 2000. Coach Gray also coached at Berkeley High School where he helped the Varsity Boys program win a North Coast Section Championship in 2005. After leaving Berkeley High School, Coach Gray coached a host of Amateur Athletic Teams.

Coach Gray earned his Bachelor of Science in Recreation Administration in 2000 from California State Hayward University. He earned his Masters of Sports Science with an emphasis in Sports Management in 2010 from the United States Sports Academy. Coach Gray is currently pursuing his Doctorate Degree in Educational Leadership and Management at Capella University. Coach Gray lives in Oakland California with his wife, Alicia and their four kids Armond jr., Amya, Amari, and Austin.

Coach Gray looks forward to big things this season as the Lady T-Birds return 5 sophomores from last years team while adding Division 1 prospect sophomore guard/forward transfer Kalea Pickeral-Dennis in addition to 8 freshman to round out a talented 2017-2018 roster.

One vision, One mind, One Grind!

Go Lady T-Birds!!!!